

2020 WMPC WOMEN'S RETREAT

ROOTED IN LOVE

RECEIVING AND PARTICIPATING
IN THE ABUNDANT LOVE OF GOD

[Ephesians 3:14-21]

Have you ever considered the reality of God's love? What keeps us from God's love?
How do we receive it? How does it change the way we see the world?
Don't miss this year's retreat with speaker Amy Julia Becker who will explore how being rooted in God's love can help us overcome anxiety, heal our brokenness, and strengthen our community.

AMY JULIA BECKER is a writer and speaker on faith, family, disability, and privilege. She has written for The New York Times, USA Today, ABCNews.com, TheAtlantic.com, The Christian Century, Christianity Today, The Washington Post, The Huffington Post, and Parents.com.

Her books include White Picket Fences: Turning Towards Love in a World Divided by Privilege, Small Talk: Learning From My Children About What Matters Most, and A Good and Perfect Gift: Faith, Expectations, and a Little Girl Named Penny, which was named one of the Top Ten Religion Books of 2011 by Publisher's Weekly. She has spoken at the Q Conference, The Festival of Faith and Writing and many other conferences and retreats.

A graduate of Princeton University and Princeton Theological Seminary, Becker lives with her husband Peter and three children, Penny, William, and Marilee in western Connecticut. She blogs about the intersection of family, faith, disability, Down syndrome, culture and parenting at www.amyjuliabecker.com. You can also follow her on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.
