PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY
SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

Today we celebrate the Lord's Supper.
Gluten-free wafers are available in the narthex and Jane Bell Gathering Space.

Greeting

Karl Zinsmeister

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us prepare for worship.

Preparation for Worship

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly cares, but to love that which is above, and even now, while we live among transient things, to hold fast to those things that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Prelude - "Andantino" from Samson and Delilah

Camille Saint-Saëns (1835-1921)

Ruth Mock, oboe

Christian Welcome and Announcements

Gloria Johnson

Please pass the Friendship Register to your neighbor; include all requested information.

Choral Introit - Harmony Across the Miles Russian folk song; lyrics by John DeLuca

On the soil that lies along the Dneiper, some believers joined hearts and hands. They built a church to worship the Lord there to minister in their native land. As they worked they lifted up their voices, their songs soared like eagles through the sky. They crossed lands and seas during their journey, came to rest in Raleigh by and by. Songs touched hearts of many in that city, who answered with love back to Smolensk. Folks from East and West soon came together wondrous friendships came to exist. In harmony we worship our Savior, love for each other grows more each day. Our hopes for peace burn bright in our hearts now, we spread its message as we go our way.

Minute for Stewardship

Call to Worship

One: Day by day, God leads us:

All: down the pathways of peace, to the living waters of grace.

One: Day by day, Jesus calls us:

All: to pour out ourselves in service, to anoint the stranger with hope.

One: Day by day, the Spirit shows us:

All: the community we could be, the family we are called to become.

*Hymn 649 - Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound

AMAZING GRACE

Stanza 1 will be sung in Cherokee by soloists. Stanzas 2-5: all sing in English.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

from Presbyterian Mission Agency

Almighty God, you have called us to one table, but we have pursued our own course. You have promised us the abundance of all creation, but in our greed and in our envy, the world goes without. You have promised us the bread of life itself, but in our pride and in our arrogance, the world goes hungry. You have promised us the waters of peace and justice, but in our violence and in our discord, the world goes thirsty. And now we are famished, too, Lord. Have mercy on us. Forgive us, again. Transform us and send us from this table as servants of your righteousness, by the power of your Son, our Lord. Amen.

WMPC member John DeLuca penned these lyrics to the well-known Russian folk song Katyusha. The lyrics celebrate our relationship with Central Baptist Church in Smolensk, Russia.

Prior to the Reformation, it was common to hear the Gospel lesson chanted (or intoned) in Latin. There are still churches who continue this practice today, most often in the vernacular.

The first Sunday in October is designated as World Communion Sunday, which celebrates our oneness in Christ with all our brothers and sisters around the world. Celebration of World Wide Communion Sunday was adopted as a denominational practice in the Presbyterian Church (US) in 1936 and then spread to the larger ecumenical church beginning in 1940. Since then, World Communion Sunday has grown into an international ecumenical celebration of Christian unity.

Over the next few weeks, you will hear some musical offerings pre-dating the Reformation. Often known simply as Josquin, this Renaissance composer from France achieved international acclaim. Among those who admired his mastery of technique and expressiveness was reformer Martin Luther. The Kyrie is an important part of the sung Mass liturgy.

*Affirmation of Faith

from Confession of Belhar, 1986

We believe that unity is, therefore, both a gift and an obligation for the church of Jesus Christ;

that this unity must become visible so that the world may believe that separation, enmity and hatred between people and groups is sin which Christ has already conquered, and accordingly that anything which threatens this unity may have no place in the Church and must be resisted;

that this unity can be established only in freedom and not under constraint; that the variety of spiritual gifts, opportunities, backgrounds, convictions, as well as the various languages and cultures, are by virtue of the reconciliation in Christ, opportunities for mutual service and enrichment within the one visible people of God.

WE GO IN GOD'S NAME

*Hymn 767 - Together We Serve

SAN ANSELMO

*Choral Benediction - In Beauty We Walk Navajo Night Chant, adapted by Marty Haugen

In beauty we walk, with beauty before us, we walk with beauty behind us, we walk with beauty above us, we walk with beauty above us and about us, we walk, it is finished in beauty.

*Chiming of the Trinity

The worship service ends with the Chiming of the Trinity. Please be mindful of those who remain to listen to the postlude.

*Postlude - Glorificamus

Our congregation will keep 25% for designation while the rest goes toward peacemaking efforts in the denomination.

Fifty years after it was birthed in South Africa by the Dutch Reformed Mission Church during its battle against apartheid, the Confession of Belhar has been included in the Book of Confessions of the PC(USA). In 2016, the 222nd General Assembly of the PC(USA) voted to make Belhar our denomination's 12th recognized confession, the first originating in the global south.
