PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY
TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY

OCTOBER 7, 2018
8:15, 9:30 & 11:00 A.M.

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

Today we celebrate the Lord's Supper.

A gluten-free station will be offered by the pastors at the communion table.

Greeting

Kirsten Homdrom

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us prepare for worship.

Preparation for Worship

from A New Zealand Prayer Book

Draw your Church together, O God, into one great company of disciples, together following our Lord Jesus Christ into every walk of life, together serving him in his mission to the world, and together witnessing to his love on every continent and island. Amen.

Prelude - Many and Great, O God, Are Thy Things

Call to Worship

One: God's love unites us in worship.

All: Come, let us worship the Lord!

One: People will come from east and west and north and south

All: to sit at the table in the kingdom of God.

One: Let us join our hearts with sisters and brothers all over the world.

All: Come, let us worship the Lord!

*Hymn 340 - This is My Song

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, Jesus came as your reflection and exact imprint. He taught us how to love, embrace and serve others, but too often we look away from the needs of others and refuse to see your image in them. We gravitate to people who are most like us, who make us feel comfortable. Forgive us when our sight is narrow and our love is conditional. Help us look for your image in the whole human family. Help us embrace others in spite of our differences and seek to serve you in all who have need. In the name of Jesus Christ, unite us with all your people. Amen.

Each Sunday, we offer four opportunities for you to worship with us at White Memorial (8:15, 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary and 11:00 a.m. OnPoint@1704 in Pickard Hall). While you will notice differences in music, location and worship leadership among our different services, what unites us in our worship is our liturgy. All services use the same Call to Worship, Prayer of Confession, readings from scripture and Affirmation of Faith.

Joseph Renville (1779-1846) was the son of a French trader and a Dakota woman and helped to establish a mission and school for the Dakota tribe near Lac qui Parle (Lake that speaks). His knowledge of the Dakota language and culture aided him as he adapted one of their chants to create this hymn melody and to author the original seven stanzas based on Jeremiah 10: 12-13.

The practice of singing the psalms has been going on since ancient times. In their original form the psalms were used in the worship at the temple in Jerusalem built by King Solomon 900 years before the birth of Jesus Christ. Over the next two months, we will explore the different traditions of psalm singing, starting today with metrical psalms. Metrical psalms are almost identical with traditional hymnody, and can be found scattered throughout the Glory to God hymnal.

The first Sunday in October is designated as World Communion Sunday, which celebrates our oneness in Christ with all our brothers and sisters around the world. Celebration of World Wide Communion Sunday was adopted as a denominational practice in the Presbyterian Church (US) in 1936 and then spread to the larger ecumenical church beginning in 1940. Since then, World Communion Sunday has grown into an international ecumenical celebration of Christian unity.

Today the chancel table presents communion elements from some of the countries with which White Memorial has had a relationship: Russia, Haiti, Northern Ireland, Poland, Mexico, and the Middle East. Our Scottish heritage is also represented. After the 11 a.m. service, these breads will be delivered to the food pantry at Urban Ministries of Wake County.

We acknowledge our partnership and unity with our Smolensk church and community as we sing in Russian today this communion hymn by one of Russia's most prolific composers of sacred music.

Serving of Bread and Cup

The elders will stand at the four corners of the sanctuary. Ushers will direct you from the side aisles to the station nearest you to receive the elements. Return to your pew by way of the center aisle. Those seated in the balcony and chancel will begin. Any who cannot come forward will be served in the pew. A gluten-free station will be offered by the pastors at the communion table.

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Presentation of Tithes and Offerings

Offertory Anthem – Praise the Lord from the Heavens Pavel Chesnokov (1877-1944)
Sung in Russian; translation: Praise the Lord from the heavens. Praise God in the highest. Alleluia. (Ps. 148:1)

*ALL WHO ARE ABLE MAY STAND.

Affirmation of Faith

adapted from the Confession of Belhar

We believe in one holy, universal Christian church, and in the unity of the communion of saints of the entire human family. We believe that this unity of the people of God must be manifest and active, in that we believe one another; that we give ourselves willingly and joyfully to one another, that we share one baptism together, that we eat of one bread and drink of one cup together, that we confess one name, one Lord, for one cause, with one hope, which is the height and the breadth and the depth and the love of Christ, forever and ever. Amen.

WE GO IN GOD'S NAME

Iglesia Santuario is a new worshipping community of New Hope Presbytery that reaches out to the Hispanic population of Raleigh and Wake County to build a space for God's worship and service. Santuario is working with Presbytery's Church Development & Evangelism Committee to be chartered as a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (USA) in the coming years. With average Sunday worship attendance of 70, their ministry focuses on outreach to the community through sports, particularly soccer and volleyball, Christian education, and service through the Salvation Army and Habitat for Humanity. WMPC has supported Santuario through its outreach budget for the past two years and our two congregations partner on joint Habitat projects.

The Confession of Belhar comes from South Africa and was included in the Book of Confessions of the PC(USA) in 2016. It is our 12th recognized confession and the first to originate from the global south. It was written during the battle against apartheid.

The website for the PC(USA) states, "Apartheid is the human context for the Confession of Belhar, yet it is never mentioned in the confession. Rather, Belhar lifts up the heart of the Gospel as a bringer of hope for the human condition. Belhar presents a Christian view of racism, separation, and suffering by those who had experienced the realities of these evils. It demonstrates that confessional affirmations can arise from social ethics."

Kate Bowler

White Memorial Presbyterian Church
Thursday, October 11, at 7:00 p.m.

No registration is necessary to attend,
but registration is required for childcare at www.whitememorial.org/register

Kate Bowler is a professor at Duke Divinity School and the author of the New York Times best seller, Everything Happens for a Reason (and other lies I've loved).

In 2015, Kate was diagnosed with stage IV cancer, and in this book she shares honestly and with deep vulnerability her cancer journey. Kate also shares valuable insights about what we can say and what we shouldn't say when someone we love is struggling with a terrible situation.

White Memorial Presbyterian, St. Michael's Episcopal, and Hayes Barton United Methodist Churches partner together to present this special event. All are invited. There is no cost. Kate will speak from 7-8 p.m. in the sanctuary. Following the presentation there will be fellowship, light refreshments and copies of pre-signed books to purchase. For questions, contact Tracey Daniel at tdaniel@whitememorial.org or (919) 834-3424.

THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The North Carolina Presbyterian Historical Society will hold its Fall Meeting on Saturday, October 13, 10 a.m.-1:30 p.m., in the Main Building at William Peace University, Raleigh, N.C. The main event will be an audio-visual presentation by Donald C. McLeod about the Scottish emigration to NC, the very interesting mix of Scottish Presbyterian ministers who answered the calls for clergy, and the early churches or kirks in which they preached. Registration is $20, including lunch. The schedule, registration form, and address are on our website at www.ncphsociety.org, or contact Acting Program Chair Barbara Cain at 919-782-0944.

T'AI CHI FOR EXERCISE

Mondays and Thursdays, 5:30 – 6:30 p.m. in Pickard Hall

A gentle art that is physically rewarding and mentally stimulating, T'ai Chi brings you a feeling of well-being, as well as relaxation, improved balance and coordination. You may begin at any class; please sign up for a minimum of 8 weeks. T'ai Chi is recommended for those age 14 and up. Classes run year-round. For more information or to register, please contact instructor Honey Music at honeyjmusic@gmail.com.
