PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY
TWENTY THIRD AFTER PENTECOST
REFORMATION SUNDAY

OCTOBER 28, 2018
8:15, 9:30 & 11:00 A.M.

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

Greeting

Karl Zinsmeister

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us prepare for worship.

Preparation for Worship

O God, who alone can probe the depths of the heart, you hear the prayer of the humble and justify the repentant sinner. Grant us the gift of humility, that we may see our own sins clearly and refrain from judging our neighbor. We make our prayer through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Prelude

(8:15) Fughetta on EIN FESTE BURG

Christian Welcome and Announcements

(8:15 & 11:00) Tracey Daniel

(9:30) Cate Church Norman

Please pass the Friendship Register to your neighbor; include all requested information.

Call to Worship

One: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

All: And blessed be the kingdom, now and forever.

One: There is one body and one spirit;

All: There is one hope in God's call to us;

One: One Lord, one faith, one baptism;

All: One God and Father of all.

One: Blessed be God who sustains and protects the Holy Church.

All: And blessed be God who guides and confirms us in our faith.

Amen. Alleluia!

Hymn 624 – I Greet Thee, Who My Sure Redeemer Art

TOULON

*Act of Confession

One: Let us put aside our good works and remember that we do sin and fall short of the glory of God.

All: Lord of all, the demands of your righteousness are too hard for us to fulfill alone, so we rush off with this excuse and ignore your law. You forgive our iniquity and remember our sin no more, and we abuse this freedom as if it were a license to selfishness, self-indulgence and self-righteousness. You give us the gift of grace: atonement through the life of your Son, yet we make it cheap without serious repentance. We fail to see the power of your faithfulness. We are your people, but do we know you as our God? Forgive us Lord, the sins we know in our heart. Save us Lord from the sins we hide.

One: God, our refuge and strength...

All: have mercy on us, write your grace on our hearts. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Passing of the Peace

Sinfonia Festiva was commissioned for the 10th anniversary of the WMPC Brass Choir.

Our liturgy for worship this Reformation Sunday is edited and adapted from the website re:worship. Today is Reformation Sunday, observed on the final Sunday in October. The Reformation began on October 31, 1517 when Martin Luther, a German monk and scholar, hung his 95 Theses on the church door in Wittenberg, Germany.

Our hymn today is traditionally attributed to John Calvin. Calvin, a native Frenchman, who lived and wrote in Geneva, is the most influential and important early Reformed theologian. During his life he wrote dozens of biblical commentaries, theological books, and sermons.

Our prayer of confession emphasizes the majesty of God's law and the "impossible possibility" of humankind's calling to fulfill the law. Theological ancestors used to recite the ten commandments each Sunday as a reminder of God's law. In the prayer there is a reference to "cheap grace." Presbyterians believe that God's grace, while free to us, is costly to God: grace through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. This prayer also alludes to Psalm 46, which is the source text of the hymn "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" which our choirs are singing at 9:30 and 11:00 this Reformation Sunday.

WORSHIP | EMBRACE | SERVE
in the manner of Christ

Earlier this month, we explored metrical psalms, where a poet adapts a psalm text to a particular meter that goes hand-in-hand with music. Today, we are exploring pointed psalms with refrain (or antiphon). Psalms are given a tone and are “pointed” using a formula that allows the text to fit with the tone.

Our text is the story of Bartimaeus, one of the most important healing stories of the Bible. In the text, Jesus asks the blind man, “What do you want me to do for you?” How would you answer this question?

Gustav Holst’s most famous work is The Planets, of which the Jupiter movement uses the tune for the well-loved THAXTED that we sing today.

*Response Hymn 394 – stanza 4

*Doxology

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

*Affirmation of Faith

from an Affirmation of Unity for Reformation Sunday

We share one faith, have one calling, are of one soul and one mind; have one God and Father, are filled with one Spirit, are baptized with one baptism, eat of one bread and drink of one cup, confess one name, are obedient to one Lord, work for one cause, and share one hope. Together we come to know the height and the breadth and the depth of the love of Christ; are built up to the stature of Christ to the new humanity; know and bear one another's burdens, thereby fulfilling the law of Christ we support one another, admonish and comfort one another; we suffer with one another for the sake of righteousness. Together we pray; together we serve God in this world.

WE GO IN GOD'S NAME

*Hymn 481 – I Believe in God the Father

GENEVAN 42

*Charge and Benediction

*Closing Response Hymn

ST. ANNE

Our God, we are a church reformed, a church reforming still;
We long to grow in your true Word, and follow more your will.
As faithful stewards we find joy; we need no rich display.
Lord, teach us all to use with care the gifts you give each day.

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God is likely the hymn most closely associated with Reformation Sunday. It was written by the German theologian Martin Luther, and still resonates with people today.

Hymn 481 is an old tune with new words. The words are essentially a sung recitation of the Apostles' Creed, the oldest of all Christian affirmations of faith. Presbyterians and all Reformed Christians are people of affirmations. The ancient and modern creeds frame the beliefs of the church and account for what we consider the essential tenants of our way of being Christians in the world.

Each Sunday, we offer four opportunities for you to worship with us at White Memorial (8:15, 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary and 11:00 a.m. OnPoint@1704 in Pickard Hall). While you will notice differences in music, location and worship leadership among our different services, what unites us in our worship is our liturgy. All services use the same Call to Worship, Prayer of Confession, readings from scripture and Affirmation of Faith.
