PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY
TWENTY FOURTH AFTER PENTECOST
ALL SAINTS DAY

NOVEMBER 4, 2018
8:15, 9:30 & 11:00 A.M.

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

Today we celebrate the Lord's Supper.

A gluten free station will be offered by the pastors at the communion table.

Greeting

Karl Zinsmeister

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us prepare for worship.

Preparation for Worship

Merciful God, righteous judge of all, you sent Jesus among us to seek and to save those who are lost. Grant that we, like Zacchaeus of Jericho, may eagerly seek the Savior, joyfully welcome him into our homes and lives, and gladly do what is pleasing in his sight. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in unity with the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Prelude – Prelude on Sing with All the Saints of Glory

James Biery (b. 1956)

Christian Welcome and Announcements

Gloria Johnson

Please pass the Friendship Register to your neighbor; include all requested information.

Call to Worship

One: Praise the Lord!

All: Sing to the Lord a new song.

One: Praise the Lord in the assembly of the faithful.

All: Sing to the Lord a new song.

One: Praise the Lord as the children rejoice.

All: Sing to the Lord a new song.

One: Praise the Lord with dancing and with tambourines and lyres.

All: Sing to the Lord a new song.

*Hymn 730 – I Sing a Song of the Saints of God

GRAND ISLE

*Prayer of Confession

Eternal God, in every age you have raised up men and women to live and die in faith. We confess that we are indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid. In your mercy, forgive us. Give us courage to follow in your way, that joined with those from ages past, who have served you with faith, hope, and love, we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ.

*Assurance of Pardon

*Passing of the Peace

*Response Hymn 299 – stanza 1

HANOVER

You servants of God, your Master proclaim,
and publish abroad Christ's wonderful name.
The name all victorious of Jesus extol,
whose kingdom is glorious, who rules over all.

Saints' days began as a way to mark the anniversaries of the death of the martyrs, those who gave their lives for their beliefs. After a while there were too many Saints' days to remember them all. Around the first millennium the church dedicated the Sunday closest to November 1 as a time to honor all the Saints. In our Reformed tradition the emphasis of this festival is on the ongoing sanctification of the whole people of God. We give thanks for the Saints of the past and for the holy lives of believers in this and in every age. This is a special time to remember and give thanks for those who have died this past year. The liturgical color for All Saint's Day is white.

The baptism of children is a clear sign that God out of God's grace has taken initiative for our salvation. When we bring our children for baptism we promise to raise them in the faith. The congregation makes promises to support the care and nurture of each child that is baptized. This includes volunteering in the nursery, teaching Sunday School, supporting mission trips and summer camps, as well as any other of ways that we can encourage our young people to know that they are loved by us and by God.

WMPC pastors shared their thoughts on including the psalms in weekly worship: "The psalms express the true feelings of the people of God, and they remind us that it is okay to be honest with God about our true feelings." "We need to experience – face to face – the larger truth that the story of our lives is not just about us and our own experience – it is about the intervention and grace of God – so much bigger, so much more powerful and reassuring than any of the self-made notions of our lives."

"Chalice and Cross" Linoleum block print by Elizabeth Steele Halstead. Reprinted by permission from Visuals for Worship, © 2006, Faith Alive Resources. On World Communion Sunday we celebrate the sacrament with attention to a global community of faith. On "All Saints' Sunday" we remember that each Lord's Supper unites us across time as well as space as we celebrate a communion with all the saints before us.

Based on a Biblical text commonly used at wedding ceremonies, our musical selection, The Gift of Love, is well known in a variety of solo, choral, and instrumental settings. Hal and Martha Hopson were guest lecturers at WMPC in 2015 and led our combined vocal and instrumental ensembles in a Sacred Music Festival.

WE PROCLAIM GOD'S WORD

Sacrament of Baptism

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

Sacrament of The Lord's Supper

Cate Church Norman

Invitation to the Table

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Words of Institution

Serving of Bread and Cup

8:15 & 11:00 - Communion will be served in the pews. Please hold each element until invited to partake together. As you pass the elements, remember that by the grace of God, Christ calls us and equips each of us to minister to each other.

9:30 - The elders will stand at the four corners of the sanctuary. Ushers will direct you from the side aisles to the station nearest you to receive the elements. Return to your pew by way of the center aisle. Those seated in the balcony and chancel will begin. Any who cannot come forward will be served in the pew.

Music During Distribution

Hymn 506 – Look Who Gathers at Christ's Table!

COPELAND

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Presentation of Tithes and Offerings

Offertory Anthem

(8:15) Be Thou My Vision

arr. Alice Parker (b. 1925)

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart; naught be all else to me, save that thou art; thou my best thought by day or by night, waking or sleeping, thy presence my light. Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true word; I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord; Thou my great Father; thine own may I be; thou in me dwelling, and I one with thee. Riches I heed not, nor vain empty praise; thou mine inheritance, now and always; thou and thou only, first in my heart, High King of heaven, my treasure thou art. High King of heaven, my victory won; may I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's sun! Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, still be my vision, O ruler of all.

(9:30 & 11:00) The Gift of Love

Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)

Though I may speak with bravest fire, and have the gift to all inspire, And have not love, my words are vain, as sounding brass and hopeless gain. Though I may give all I possess, and striving so my love profess, But not be giv'n by love within, the profit soon turns strangely thin. Come, Spirit come, our hearts control. Our spirits long to be made whole. Let inward love guide every deed. By this we worship and are freed. Amen. (based on I Cor. 13:1-13)

*ALL WHO ARE ABLE MAY STAND.

*Affirmation of Faith

from the Second Helvetic Confession

We acknowledge the saints
to be living members of Christ and friends of God
who have gloriously overcome the flesh and the world.
Hence we love them as brothers and sisters,
and also honor them;
yet not with any kind of worship
but by an honorable opinion of them
and just praises of them.
We also imitate them.
For with ardent longings and supplications
we earnestly desire to be imitators of their faith and virtues,
to share eternal salvation with them,
to dwell eternally with them in the presence of God,
and to rejoice with them in Christ.

WE GO IN GOD'S NAME

*Hymn 326 – *For All the Saints

SINE NOMINE

*Charge and Benediction

*Chiming of the Trinity

The worship service ends with the Chiming of the Trinity.
Please be mindful of those who remain to listen to the postlude.

*Postlude *Sing With All The Saints in Glory

arr. Nancy Galbraith (b. 1951)

***

Generosity Campaign 2019 Update

As of Wednesday, October 31, we have received 521 pledges totaling $2,391,770.
Thank you for your support of the ministry of White Memorial Presbyterian Church.

The word “Helvetic” is Latin for “Swiss.” The setting of the Second Helvetic Confession is Swiss-German Reformed Protestantism.

Reflecting the theological maturity of the Reformed churches this confession is moderate in tone and universal in spirit. It was written in 1561 by Heinrich Bullinger and he intended the document to be attached to his last will and testament to the Zurich church. The churches of Switzerland adopted Bullinger's confession and soon after this it received wide acceptance throughout Europe and beyond.

The Second Helvetic Confession emphasizes the church and its life and affirms the authority of Scriptures for the church's governance and reformation. It also addresses the practical life of the gathered community.

The hymn tune MISSISSIPPI is the basis of the music for both the Prelude and the Postlude today. The hymn (not in Glory to God) will be sung at our annual memorial Evensong service this afternoon at 4:00. Please join us for this service of remembrance as combined choirs and guest harpist, Anita Burroughs-Price offer musical meditations, along with scripture, prayers, a homily and necrology.

Each Sunday, we offer four opportunities for you to worship with us at White Memorial (8:15, 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary and 11:00 a.m. OnPoint@1704 in Pickard Hall). While you will notice differences in music, location and worship leadership among our different services, what unites us in our worship is our liturgy. All services use the same Call to Worship, Prayer of Confession, readings from scripture and Affirmation of Faith.

October 29, 2018

Dear White Memorial Friends:

After almost 21 years serving as one of your pastors at White Memorial, I am writing to tell you that I am retiring from my current full-time pastoral ministry position on March 1, 2019. It has been a true privilege to share in ministry with you in this very special place and I will cherish our time together. We have shared many wonderfully sacred times of life: happy times as we have celebrated births, baptisms, confirmations, graduations, and marriages; and the sad times as we faced illnesses, crises, and deaths of loved ones. My thoughts of our time together bring me joy and much gratitude. At the same time, I am sad to be leaving you and White Memorial.

In making the transition, effective November 15 I will be reducing my hours and concentrating most of my time on the building project to make sure it starts off on a good foundation. It is interesting that one of the first major projects of my ministry at White Memorial was working with the Building Committee to construct the Witherspoon building and the Jane Bell Gathering Space, so it seems fitting that a major part of my time as I leave White Memorial will be spent working with the Building Committee and contractor as we start building the new spaces made possible through the Imagine Campaign.

As I thought about retirement I imagined spending more time with family and being engaged in various volunteer opportunities. However, a funny thing happened on the way to retirement! It would be an understatement to say that this transition is bigger than I had imagined. While this new time will provide a different change of pace, I will be more engaged in mission work than I had originally planned. I am excited to share that God has moved me in a new direction and I have accepted the position of Executive Director of Haiti Outreach Ministries. I will join this important ministry in November and start working with them full time in March.

I know we have a few more months together, but I want to take the opportunity now to say thank you for your support and shared ministry these past 21 years.

Gratefully,

Gary

Gary W. Fulton
Associate Pastor for Administration and Outreach

Do you want to receive the weekly youth email newsletter that's full of great information? Contact Deb Smith at dsmith@whitememorial.org to be added to the contact list.

LOOKING AHEAD

- MS Impact Groups and HS Connections, November 1 5-6:30 p.m.
- International Book Club November 11, noon-1 p.m. C-301, Online Registration needed
- Screenagers, November 18 5:30-7:30 p.m.
- Sabbath Sunday, November 25
- Joy Gift Worship Service December 2, 5:30-6:30 p.m.

RIDE THE SHUTTLE!

Avoid the traffic around the church and ride the shuttle from Carolina Place, 2626 Glenwood Avenue, on Sundays. Shuttle service begins at 8:45 a.m. and continues until the 11:00 a.m. worship service concludes and everyone is back to their cars. Hayes Barton United Methodist operates a shuttle from the same location, so look for the WMPC sign in the shuttle bus window. If you do park on campus, please park legally and be mindful of our neighbors. Thank you!
