Call to Worship

One: Let us start with a question: What has Jesus called us to do?

All: Among many things two stand out: to love God with all that we are, and to love our neighbors as we love ourselves.

One: Our faith begins with a confession -- Jesus believed this call to love God and neighbor so completely, he was willing to give his life that the world might witness, learn, and believe.

All: With the prayers of our hearts, with the songs of our lives, and with our very best hopes we gather in the name of the Savior, who came not to be served but to serve those in need wherever they are found.

One: Let us with great, great thanksgiving worship and praise today!

*Hymn 396 - Brethren, We Have Met to Worship

HOLY MANNA

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

The guy on the corner with a sign; the child who heads home from school on Friday with very little food for the weekend; the baby in Haiti who needs formula; the woman in StepUp trying to complete her classes and gain essential skills; God, everywhere we look we are overwhelmed by the needs of so many. Forgive us when we tire and when we throw our hands up and say with resignation, "What can we do?" Hear our prayer. Shake us from complacency. Call us to use our hands to help. Show us the way of Jesus who called us to serve without hesitation. In his name hear our confession and forgive us when we fail your calling to generous service. Amen.

BEACH SPRING

Lend your joy to all our giving, let it light our pilgrim way; from the night of anxious keeping, loose us into generous day.
Then when years on earth are over, and we've lived our human span,
God fulfill beyond our dreaming, all our stewardship began. (text by Robert Edwards)

*ALL WHO ARE ABLE MAY STAND.

*Affirmation of Faith

adapted from The Confession of 1967

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission. His human life involves the church in the common life of all people. His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being. His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. His crucifixion discloses to the church God's judgment on the inhumanity that marks human relations. In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's victory over all wrong. The church follows this pattern in the form of its life and in the method of its action. So to live and serve is to confess Christ as Lord.

WE GO IN GOD'S NAME

*Hymn 716 - *God, Whose Giving Knows No Ending

BEACH SPRING

*Charge and Benediction

*Chiming of the Trinity

The worship service ends with the Chiming of the Trinity.
Please be mindful of those who remain to listen to the postlude.
