

WHITE MEMORIAL

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY
FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

FEBRUARY 2, 2020
8:00, 9:30 & 11:00 a.m.

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

Today we celebrate the Lord's Supper.

Greeting

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us prepare for worship.

Karl Zinsmeister

Preparation for Worship

O God, in the folly of the cross you reveal the great distance between your wisdom and human understanding. Open our minds to the simplicity of the gospel, that, fervent in faith and tireless in love, we may become light and salt for the world, for the sake of Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Prelude - Prelude on UNION SEMINARY

Charles Callahan (b. 1951)

Christian Welcome and Announcements

(8:00 & 11:00) Levi Bannerman

Please pass the Friendship Register to your neighbor and include all requested information.

Call to Worship

from Psalm 24

One: The earth is the Lord's — everything on the earth and everything in the earth.

All: God alone has established the lands and the seas.

One: Let us receive blessings from the Lord; let us declare God is our salvation.

All: Let us lift up our heads and lift up our faces to behold the God of glory!

One: For God is the Lord of the table; God is the Lord of the earth; God alone is our king of glory.

*Hymn 529 - Draw Us in the Spirit's Tether

UNION SEMINARY

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

In our far too busy lives, we have become adept at over complicating most everything. Hear our confession, God of grace and God of glory. Draw us into your arms by your Holy Spirit. Make each of us a channel of Christ's peace. Forgive the sin which creates the fear and doubt which overcomplicates the faith and love that Jesus provides. Help us to remember the lessons of Scripture that we might return to you and lean upon your care. In the name of our Savior, we make our confession. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

*Passing of the Peace

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

Each Sunday, we offer four opportunities for you to worship with us at White Memorial (8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary and 11:00 a.m. OnPoint@1704 in Pickard Hall). While you will notice differences in music, location and worship leadership among our different services, what unites us in our worship is our scripture, liturgy and sermon. All services use the same Call to Worship, Prayer of Confession, readings from Scripture and Affirmation of Faith.

Psalm 24 begins our worship today. Notice that it follows the most famous of all Psalms, Psalm 23. It is a psalm of praise which was intended to be sung with music.

Hymn 529 is a communion hymn. In it we will sing to God with thanksgiving to "break the bread and bless the cup." This beautiful hymn prepares us to receive the sacrament together.

WORSHIP | EMBRACE | SERVE

8:00 & 11:00 - Communion will be served in the pews. Please hold each element until invited to partake together. As you pass the elements, remember that by the grace of God, Christ calls us and equips each of us to minister to one other.

9:30 - Communion will be served by intinction. The elders will stand at the four corners of the Sanctuary. Ushers will direct you from the side aisles to the station nearest you to receive the elements. Return to your pew by way of the center aisle. Those seated in the balcony and chancel will begin. Any who cannot come forward will be served in the pew.

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Presentation of Tithes and Offerings

The Revised Common Lectionary today has provided two "mountain top" scriptures. These texts are worthy of being memorized. They serve as lenses to understand much of the remainder of the Bible. They have touched generation upon generation of believers.

As a church we are currently in Year A of our Revised Common Lectionary. Year A is focused upon Matthew's gospel. The Lectionary is a three-year cycle of readings.

Offertory Anthem

(8:00) Blessed Are They

John Leavitt (b. 1956)

Blessed are they, happy are they, blessed are they of God. Happy are those who are poor; for they shall be blessed of God. He gently will lead them; he gladly will feed them; their home is the heart of God. And blessed are those with sorrow and woe: his comfort and joy will overflow. The meek and the lowly, blessed and holy: great is their gift from God. Happy are those who desire the righteousness born of God. He blesses their hunger; he fills them with wonder; their rest is the peace of God. And blessed are those who mercy do show: his grace and compassion will know. The purest of children see now this heaven, held in the hand of God. Happy are those who love peace, for they are the people of God. His light does shine through them; his truth will be in them, their life is the light of God. The world will reject them; reject them before him; their part is the love of God. Blessed are those who are poor; happy are those who do mourn; blessed are those who are meek; happy are those whose hearts yearn; blessed are those who show grace; happy are those who are pure; blessed are those who seek peace, happy are those who know God.

(9:30 & 11:00) Prayer for Peace

David Cherwien (b. 1957)

O God of love, O King of peace, make wars throughout the world to cease; the wrath of nations now restrain. Give peace, O God, give peace again. Remember, Lord, thy works of old, the wonders that thy people told; remember not our sin's dark stain. Whom shall we trust but thee, O Lord? Where rest but on thy faithful word? None ever called on thee in vain.

*Affirmation of Faith

from The Study Catechism (PCUSA)

One: What does it mean to say that Jesus Christ is the image of God?

All: Despite our turning from God, God did not turn from us, but instead sent Jesus Christ in the fullness of time to restore our broken humanity. Jesus lived completely for God, by giving himself completely for us, even to the point of dying for us. By living so completely for others, he manifested what he was — the perfect image of God. When by grace we are conformed to him through faith, our humanity is renewed according to the divine image that we lost. This is our faith and our trust.

WE GO IN GOD'S NAME

*Hymn 753 - Make Me a Channel of Your Peace

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

*Charge and Benediction

*Chiming of the Trinity

The worship service ends with the Chiming of the Trinity.
Please be mindful of those who remain to listen to the postlude.

Catechisms are classical teaching and study tools. Presented in question and answer form, catechisms help believers learn the Christian faith. There are dozens of catechisms. Our Affirmation of Faith today is from a catechism first presented in 1998.

Hymn 753 is a 20th century adaptation of the ancient prayer of St. Francis. It is one of the most beloved prayers in the world. We sing it today as it pairs very well with our reading from Matthew 5.

On Sunday, February 9 at 9:30 a.m. there will be a Congregational Meeting for the dismissal of Tracey Daniel as she is called to First Scots Presbyterian Church in Charleston, SC.

If you would like to write her a note, you will find a basket at the reception desk in the Witherspoon building and in Jane Bell Gathering Space on Sunday, February 2 and February 9. Also, if you would like to give a gift to Tracey in appreciation for her years of service to White Memorial, make a check out to White Memorial with a note that it is in honor of Tracey. Please note that this is not a tax-deductible gift.

Jaki Shelton Green
North Carolina Poet Laureate

As you think of yourself as your own curator or personal anthropologist...what is in your human museum? What are the rooms, spaces, containers you create for the telling, for the keeping, for the knowing, for your stories, your creativity, and for your validations as a writer?

Participants will experience their writing instruments (pens, computers) becoming powerful excavation tools unearthing new creative texts or buried inspiration. This deep engagement will provide an opportunity to truly understand why we all should understand and manifest the need to be the curators of our own lives; hence the curators and guides for harvesting our creative lives.
