PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY
TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

FEBRUARY 23, 2020
8:00, 9:30 & 11:00 a.m.

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

Greeting

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us prepare for worship.

Kirsten Homdrom

Preparation for Worship

O Lord God, you led your people through the wilderness and brought them to the promised land. So guide us, that, following our Savior, we may walk through the wilderness of this world toward the glory of the world to come; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Call to Worship

One: Long ago, God called Moses to the mountain where Moses convened with the Lord for forty days.

All: In a similar way, Jesus ascended the mountain where he was blessed by God.

One: Today we worship with the memory of these mountaintop moments. In thanksgiving we praise the wonder and power of God.

All: Let us give thanks to the God of our salvation. Let us pray, sing, and celebrate God's gifts of mercy and grace.

Hymn 189 - O Wondrous Sight, O Vision Fair

DEO GRACIAS

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

God of Glory: hear our prayer as we make our confession. We have not done what we ought to have done; we have made mistakes; we have regrets. Help us so that our lives would not be consumed by the fear of shame and sin. May our faith be transfigured that it would occupy the central place in our lives. May we be both inspired and inspiring. May our faith be renewed for a life of service and celebration, that, loving our neighbors we might bear the name of Jesus into the world. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

*Passing of the Peace

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

Each Sunday, we offer four opportunities for you to worship with us at White Memorial (8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary and 11:00 a.m. OnPoint@1704). While you will notice differences in music, location and worship leadership among our different services, what unites us in our worship is our scripture, liturgy and sermon. All services use the same Call to Worship, Prayer of Confession, readings from Scripture and Affirmation of Faith.

Much of our worship today remembers two mountaintop experiences from the Bible. In the Bible, powerful things happen in high places. As we begin our worship, can you think of one or two "mountaintop" moments which have shaped your faith?

One of the functions of the transfiguration of Jesus is to help the disciples realign their understanding of Jesus. God wants them to see Jesus in a new light. As we pray, think about the areas of life which need new visions. Think about places in our personal lives and in our world which need to be realigned to correspond more closely with God's vision.

WORSHIP | EMBRACE | SERVE

in the manner of Christ

Today's musical setting of Psalm 99, by Robert Wetzler, pairs a refrain with pointed psalm verses (a practice of psalm singing which uses a melodic formula for each verse: the place to change melody notes is indicated by marks or "points" written above the words). The pointed verses are sung by the choir.

Has the power of God ever struck you, or someone you know, with awe?

Hymn 11, which pairs an old hymn with a relatively new text, lists images and names for God as they are found in scripture.

The text of Jesus, Take Us to the Mountain is used in two different musical settings during worship today. First is a setting by Carl Schalk, sung by the Chancel Choir. Second is the last hymn in worship today, UNSER HERRSCHER.

*Response Hymn 581

GLORIA PATRI (Creatorex)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Judy Yates Siker

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Presentation of Tithes and Offerings

Offertory Anthem

(8:00) Jesus, Take Us to the Mountain

Carl Schalk (b. 1929)

Jesus, take us to the mountain, where, with Peter, James, and John, we are dazzled by Your glory, light as blinding as the sun. There prepare us for the night by the vision of that sight. What do you want us to see there, that Your close companions saw? Your divinity revealed there fills us with the self-same awe. Clothed in flesh like ours You go matched to meet our deadliest Foe. What do You want us to hear there, that Your dear disciples heard? Once again the Voice from heaven says of the Incarnate Word: "Listen, listen, ev'ry one, This is my beloved Son!" Take us to that other mountain where we see You glorified, where You shouted "It is finished!" where for all the world You died. Hear the stunned centurion: "Truly This was God's own Son!" We who have beheld Your glory, risen and ascended Lord, cannot help but tell the story, all that we have seen and heard; say with Peter, James, and John: "You are God's beloved Son!"

(9:30 & 11:00) And Then Shall Your Light Break Forth (from “Elijah”) Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)
And then shall your light break forth as the light of morning breaketh, and your health shall speedily spring forth then; and the glory of the Lord ever shall reward you. Lord our Creator, how excellent Thy Name is in all the nations! Thou fillest heav’n with glory. Amen.

Offertory Response Hymn 717 PLEADING SAVIOR
For the life that you have given, for the love in Christ made known, with these fruits of time and labor, with these gifts that are your own:
here we offer, Lord, our praises; heart and mind and strength we bring;
give us grace to love and serve you, living what we pray and sing.

Affirmation of Faith adapted from Philippians 2
God has called us to do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than ourselves. God has called us to look not to our own interests, but to the interests of others. We desire to share in the same mind that was in Christ Jesus: who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave in human likeness. Jesus humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death on a cross.
God highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God.

WE GO IN GOD’S NAME

Hymn 193 - *Jesus, Take Us to the Mountain UNSER HERRSCHER

Charge and Benediction

Farewell to Alleluia - Alleluia from *A Ceremony of Carols
Benjamin Britten (1913-1976)

Chiming of the Trinity
The worship service ends with the Chiming of the Trinity.
Please be mindful of those who remain to listen to the postlude.

Postlude

(9:30 & 11:00) Trumpet Tune Guiseppe Torelli, arr. S. Drummond Wolff

The flowers in the chancel this morning are the wedding flowers of Julia Hadley Davis and Carlyle Richardson Cromer, whose marriage was celebrated yesterday. They are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill Davis, Dr. and Mrs. Hadley McDee Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Ernest Cromer, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Roy Richardson. Julia is the daughter of Dee and Tom Davis.

Guest Instrumentalists: Van Zimmerman, trumpet; Matt Edwards, trombone.

We use this affirmation frequently. It is an ancient hymn which has been imbedded in the words of Philippians. Like our Matthew text for the day, it is about the power and wonder of Jesus.

During the season of Lent, we refrain from using the word “Alleluia.” We will next sing or speak it on Easter Sunday, April 12.

Christopher Edmonston, Speaker

Discourse and discord sound similar, but they are completely different. God's spirit calls to us to practice discourse and yet words of discord bombard us on television, radio and social media.

How can we love our neighbors if we never listen to them? Seeking the common good requires both speaking the truth in love and opening our hearts and ears to others (especially when they are disagreeable).

Our Spring Faith Forum will examine the examples that the Bible provides for the common good which God desires.

Breakfast provided. (love offering)

This documentary, the winner of several awards, is touted by Variety magazine as "hugely entertaining...will leave audiences gobsmacked" Hungry Harvest and Toward Zero Waste are proud to co-sponsor this event.
