

Dear Friends,

Welcome to our Evensong Service. We gather in this sacred space to worship God and to remember special people in our lives who have died. Remembering those we love and how we were loved well by them is essential. Remembering is part of how we heal and is an important part of our spiritual lives because in the love of others we are reminded of God's bounteous love and provision for us.

In Psalm 116 of The Message translation of Scripture, late pastor and theologian Eugene Peterson, writes,

"What can I give back to God for the blessings he's poured out on me? I'll lift high the cup of salvation—a toast to God! I'll pray in the name of God; I'll complete what I promised God I'd do, and I'll do it together with his people."

Today, even in the midst of our grief, we gather together to raise a toast to God, to raise our voices to God and to thank God for the gifts we have received from those we loved.

As you worship may you also remember that even though grief can feel very lonely, you are not alone. You are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses who have gone on before you and by a congregation who loves and prays for you, and you are held in the palm of God's hand.

Grace and Peace,

"ate

Names of White Memorial

WHITE MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH — formed in 1946 by a group of over 250 members who left First Presbyterian Church with the mission of establishing a Presbyterian congregation in the Hayes Barton area of Raleigh. The group voted to name the new church as a memorial to The Reverend Dr. William McClannahan White, a former pastor of First Presbyterian who had great interest in new church development. Descendants of Dr. White continue to be members of White Memorial.

LUTHER BUILDING — Adjacent to the sanctuary and sanctuary annex, the Luther Building, used by the Christian education program and the Weekday School, honors the leader of the Protestant Reformation, Martin Luther. Luther, who lived in the sixteenth century, stressed the ability of church members to read and interpret scripture. Contributions of the Protestant Reformation to Christianity include an emphasis on learning and the gift of salvation by faith, which comes through a reading and hearing of the Word of God.

CALVIN BUILDING — Directly across McDonald Lane from the Luther Building, the Calvin Building houses rooms for youth ministry and adult classes. During the week, the facility is often used for other meetings, classes, meal events, and community ministry. The building honors John Calvin, the sixteenth century French Christian and scholar who spent much of his adult life in Geneva. Calvin is widely acclaimed as the founder of the Reformed Tradition, which led to the formation of the Presbyterian Church.

KNOX BUILDING — This building, next to the playground, contains Pickard Hall - a multi-purpose gymnasium and dining hall - and classrooms. The building honors John Knox, the sixteenth century Scottish Christian preacher and political leader. Knox studied under Calvin in Geneva, then returned to Scotland to lead the Protestant Reformation and the fight for political independence from England. Presbyterianism in the United States descended from the work of Knox and the Church of Scotland.

WITHERSPOON BUILDING — Across McDonald Lane from the Knox Building and adjacent to the Calvin Building is this primary adminstrative facility for the church. Almost all staff offices are located in the building, along with several classrooms, the Clothing Closet ministry, and the church library. The building honors John Witherspoon, the eighteenth century Scottish preacher who came to the United States to be president of Princeton University. In addition to being a minister and educator, Witherspoon was the only ordained minister to sign the Declaration of Independence in 1776, and was a representative to the Continental Congress that approved the Constitution of the United States in 1781.

HUDSON ROOM — This combination classroom and meeting room is located on the second floor of the Knox Building. It honors and memorializes Karl Hudson, Sr., a charter member of the congregation and son-in-law of Dr. William McClannahan White.

DAVIDSON CHAPEL — Located on the north end of the Calvin Building, Davidson Chapel honors and memorializes James A. Davidson, charter member and elder. The company founded by Mr. Davidson has constructed all the buildings at White Memorial.

PICKARD HALL & PICKARD MEMORIAL GARDEN — The hall, located in the Knox Building, and the garden, next to the sanctuary, honor The Reverend Dr. H. Edwin Pickard, Pastor Emeritus, who served White Memorial from 1966 until 1993.

JANE BELL GATHERING SPACE — The large room immediately behind the sanctuary is named in memory of Jane McNair Bell, longtime member of the congregation who served as deacon, elder, and leader of Presbyterian Women.

CAROL COPELAND COURTYARD — The brick patio and landscaped areas between the Luther and Knox Buildings are named in memory of Carol Smith Copeland, a young mother, church school teacher, and active member of Presbyterian Women.

JOSEPH CALDWELL LIBRARY — Located in the Witherspoon Building, the library is named in memory of Joseph Caldwell, a Presbyterian educator and the first President of the University of North Carolina.
