WHITE MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH | JUNE 2020

“The only thing that counts....”

Last summer we were preaching our way through the dozens and dozens of “one another” texts of the Bible. The most famous “one another” is in the gospel of John, when Jesus says: “you shall love one another as I have loved you.” Near the end of June, I preached on Galatians 5. I took it on as a challenge as my text was Galatians 5, verse 13, among the most difficult of the bunch: “through love become slaves to one another.” In preparing the sermon, my eyes were continually drawn instead to Galatians 5, verse 6. It leaped off the page for me, as though I saw it for the first time: “the only thing that counts is faith working through love.”

In June 2020 we are striving to adapt to new restrictions and limits that have been placed on our lives by an earthquake in the form of a novel pathogen. It is becoming better known to us each day, creeping a little deeper into our lives and consciousnesses. It appears to be the next in a line of threats that we must confront with courage, knowledge, and wisdom. The 19th-century hymn God of the Ages Whose Almighty Hand captures the spirit of the prayer we pray: “From wars alarms, from deadly pestilence; be thy strong arm our ever sure defense. Be thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay: thy word our law, thy paths our chosen way.”

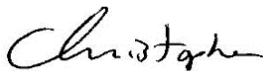

Faith, the Bible tells us, is the assurance of what is hoped for and the conviction of things not seen. Faith in God and trust in the arc of history means that we believe that in God’s calculus what we hope for and cannot see is that which shall come to pass. This kind of belief can appear at first glance to be naive. But the truth is that such faith requires courage. The truth is that it is anything but naive as the long march of time has proven repeatedly that God, even while at times mysterious, is alone worthy of our future hopes.

The question is, what to do until then? What to do until the days of our living seem safer and more secure? The answer for us, the followers of Jesus, is found at Galatians 5, verse 6: “the only thing that counts is faith working through love.” Until we know the specifics of what the future may hold, such aspirations for faith and love must be our guide. Thankfully, our memories and stories are full of testimony for how true a guide faith and love have been, can be, and will be.

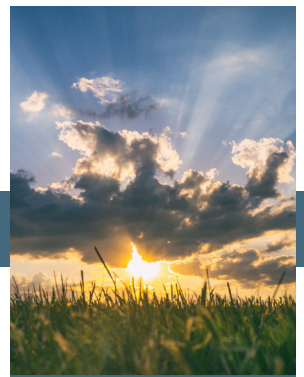

UPDATES FOR OUR CHURCH FAMILY:

1. Our Session and ReOpening Task Group are constantly monitoring guidance from health officials, best practices as shared by medical professionals, and the best wisdom from other pastors and churches near and far. We are working and praying daily about the summer and fall weeks to come, relative to our church campus. Once again, I ask you to keep the leaders of our church in prayer. Please check the website and read your weekly email from the church for details about activities and worship at WMPC.
2. In this monthly newsletter, our Executive Director, Andrew Amodei, will provide a more detailed update on our building project. The building phase will be complete this month. To date, the project is on budget. I am happy to report that pledges to the project will cover the balance of building expenses and provide the balance of our Imagine Fund, which is a long-term endowment dedicated to benevolences and facilities upkeep. I ask you to continue your incredible support and generosity so we can see this transformational project to its end.
3. Finally, I want to commend our “faith at home” efforts to you. On our website you will find devotionals, contemplative practices, offerings from our music staff, a sermon archive, and cooking tips from Macy Aguirre, our Director of Food Services. I hope you are taking the time to use this valuable resource.

May the faith that works through love abound,

Christopher Edmonston
Pastor

Anne was baptized, raised, and confirmed at First Presbyterian Church in Statesville. She studied social work at Appalachian State University and attended Emory University's Candler School of Theology. She married her high school sweetheart, Aaron, in 2017. Although they have loved their time in Atlanta, North Carolina has been calling them home and they are excited to begin a new chapter in Raleigh.

Anne is happiest being outdoors or when busy in the kitchen, gathering people around a crowded table. She is passionate about creating a community of support and belonging for all of God's people, one where folks can learn and grow their faith in new ways. She is excited to begin full-time ministry as a Pastoral Resident and for the ways in which God will shape her ministry through the people at WMPC.

REOPENING TASK GROUP FORMED

Many of you read Christopher's letter sent to the congregation on Thursday, May 20 about WMPC's new task group that will make recommendations as to "when we reopen" and "how" we do so. The Session, our governing group of Elders, will take their recommendations and make any final decisions. If you missed seeing the letter, you can find it on our website under updates (May 20).

BREAKING BREAD

Here's a quick and easy recipe WMPC member Nan Hannah follows to prepare Eucharistic Bread each month. As we partake in communion on Sunday, June 7, we invite you and your family to make this recipe beforehand. Makes two small loaves.

You can find the recipe on our website:

www.whitememorial.org/activities-for-everyone

We are scheduled to gain our certificate of occupancy on June 19. Our spaces will be fully accessible by summer's end. Thank you for your generosity, leadership, and patience throughout this project. As such, this will be the final building update of this kind for the Imagine Campaign. You can expect special articles and updates as it pertains to the campaign and how spaces will be used.

As a final note on the project, in order to ensure steady cashflow, we took out a line of credit of which we used over $3 million. This is covered by our pledges and other commitments, yet your generosity is still needed to bring this project to completion. As you look towards summer vacations and the Fall, please remember these commitments and the opportunity to complete the capital campaign while supporting our on-going ministry efforts. Annual and capital giving statements will be mailed soon. Be on the lookout for those. If you need any assistance giving, please call me, Andrew Amodei, or Jody Grayson at 919-834-3424.

PHILIPPIANS SUMMER PREACHING SERIES: JOY AND CONFIDENCE TO SPARE

The book of Philippians occupies a special place in the hearts of people who love the New Testament. While not the longest letter of Paul, or technically speaking, his most complete letter, it is nonetheless the most beloved. Its verses are among the most hopeful, joyful, and quotable lines in all the Bible.

From its very beginning, at chapter 1 verse 3 where Paul begins, "I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you," the letter builds promise upon promise and joy upon joy throughout its four concise chapters. When we consider that Paul is believed to have been facing real and deep hardships when he composed Philippians it makes the letter even more critical for study and applicable to our lives. Facing hardships aplenty, this tone is yet optimistic, joyful, hopeful, and faithful to God in ways that have moved believers since the beginning of the church.

This summer, a summer unlike most any living person beyond the very oldest has ever faced, we at White Memorial will be preaching through Philippians. We will consider our hardships, challenges, fears, and struggles as we shine the light of scripture upon them. We will find that the words of Philippians provide reliable direction for the practice of faith when hope itself is on the line.

Paul writes, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me," in chapter 4 verse 13. This verse has been made famous for good reason. It is about confidence in the face of despair. It is about strength when we are made to feel weak. It is about the power of faith that God has given us through the one we call Lord. Confidence in God and strength through faith are the spiritual tools we must employ while we pray for doctors and nurses and those who are working hard to use their gifts to protect us.

It turns out that real courage requires belief. Philippians has belief aplenty. Enough to go around and be shared as we pray for a day when our moment is not governed so greatly by our pandemic. We, with belief and courage, are called to pray for a day which will be governed almost completely by the great struggle for redemption and love for which God gave us hearts for faith in the first place.

We take time to listen for words or phrases that stand out for us, and we listen for a call that God may be placing on us.

URBAN MINISTRIES FOOD PANTRY NEEDS

Over the next several weeks we will be helping Urban Ministries with their food pantry. UM is the second largest food pantry in Wake County and has continued working with clients on a drive up basis. Please place items in the red bins outside of the Witherspoon Building. They will be picked up and delivered to the pantry. Most needed at this time are low-sodium and low sugar breakfast items such as cereal, boxes of individual packs of oatmeal and grits, and breakfast/fruit/granola bars. Also needed are canned meats and vegetables.

MEALS ON WHEELS NEEDS DELIVERY HELP AND ITEMS

Meals on Wheels needs drivers between 9:00 and 10:00 a.m. to make 3-4 stops to drop off a week of frozen meals with no personal contact. It takes about an hour. There are many slots available and there is an on-line application. They also need masks and gloves for the drivers that can be placed in the red bins in front of the Witherspoon Building.

TRIANGLE FAMILY SERVICES IS HIRING

Susan Sams Allen

"I can help" is the motto of Susan Sams Allen. She has served in many capacities at church, working with children, Presbyterian Women, playing handbells, and many other areas. In addition to being a Stephen Minister, Susan is in the new class of the Diaconate. "Personally, I am uplifted by Susan's thoughtful prayers at Circle M," says this year's PW President Julie Leon.

DeLana Morgan Anderson

DeLana Morgan Anderson is the current Chair of the Diaconate, in addition to her roles with Circle C, the Youth Committee, the Generosity Committee, and Wedding Guild. Over the years, DeLana has served White Memorial on numerous Pastor Search Committees and Women's Retreat Committees, and she has been a faithful Sunday School and Confirmation teacher. Undoubtedly, you have crossed paths with DeLana or her active family on the White Memorial campus at some point—you can't miss her if you look for the brightest smile in the room!

Sally McLaurin

In addition to teaching 2 and 3 year olds in the Weekday School for over 30 years, Sally McLaurin has contributed to many ministries at White Memorial, but perhaps none so visible as in the Russian Sewing Group and the Liturgical Arts Ministry. When you see the beautiful Advent banners and scapulas that the choir wears on Sundays, thank Sally for her leadership in their creation.

Danita Morgan

From the minute Danita Morgan and husband Chris White joined White Memorial in 1994, Danita has willingly served the church and the community. She has served within and outside the church walls with all ages. She is an Elder and enthusiastically led the Imagine Campaign Committee which has raised $20 million for the new and renovated buildings and outreach.

Lynn Springfield

For over 20 years she has been the Director of Elementary Ministry. With passion, integrity and a beautiful smile, Lynn has planned and facilitated classes that have shaped our children's faith.

ABOUT THE LOGO

The caring, supportive hands represent women who seek to build an inclusive community of Presbyterian Women. The leaf represents growth of our personal and corporate response to Jesus Christ as we nurture our faith. The dove indicates our work for peace in our own lives and throughout the world, shown in the globe. At the center of the design is the cross, by which our sins are forgiven and we are freed to live in Christ who is at the center of our lives. The overall design is of a butterfly, a symbol of newness in Christ.

A BIG THANK YOU to Our Children's Volunteers!

Thank you for being a faithful and caring leader of our church's children this year!
Our church appreciates all the ways that you have shared your time, your love, and your gifts!
