Worship FAQs

1. WHAT WILL WORSHIP LOOK LIKE?

If you have been attending worship online during the past several months, you should anticipate essentially the same worship service, in the Reformed Tradition. There will be some alterations within the worship spaces in terms of how congregational singing and speaking are handled.

2. MAY I SCHEDULE A WEDDING OR WITNESS TO THE RESURRECTION SERVICE OF WORSHIP (FUNERAL)?

Yes! You may schedule other kinds of worship services as needed. All services will follow the same protocols used during Sunday morning worship services. You may use assigned seating via registration if you prefer.

3. DO I HAVE TO WEAR A MASK? WHAT IF I FORGET MY MASK?

Masks will be required for all events on campus including worship. If you forget your mask, the ushers will provide you with one.

4. WITHOUT REGISTRATION, HOW WILL I ATTEND?

In the sanctuary, available pews will have a pew cushion where you can sit. Pews without a cushion are unavailable for seating. In the Chapel, Pickard Hall, and the Edinburgh Building, rows of chairs are set with appropriate distancing between rows. You are asked to leave three seats in between each household.

In the sanctuary, the seats are numbered to help you with spacing.

Regardless of the service you attend, we ask that your family sit together, wear masks, and “Leave 3” seats in between family groups.

5. HOW MANY PEOPLE ARE ALLOWED TO ATTEND?

Depending on the number of persons in households, each worship space can seat 30% of its capacity and maintain social distancing at the following estimated seating capacities:

- The Sanctuary: 80 to 120
- The Chapel: 30 to 50
- The Main Hall in the Edinburgh Building: 80 to 120
- Pickard Hall: 75 to 100

6. WILL I NEED TO SIGN-IN?

Yes. There will be a sign-in sheet before entering worship.
